[XX^th Year.] THURSDAY, October 4, 1764. [N^o. 1013.]

LONDON, July 3.

LAST Friday Morning died, of an Inflammation in his Bowels, which turned to a Mortification, aged 72, at his Seat, at Prior Park, near Bath, Ralph Allen, Esq; He was quite sensible and resigned to the last, and so composed even in the most excruciating Pain, that he asked his Physicians the Day before he died, when no Hopes of his Recovery remained, how many Hours they thought he might live, which they told him pretty nearly. He then thanked them for their Attendance, and desired they would leave him. He was universally known to have lived in the constant Practice of every Virtue that does Honour to Humanity.—It is impossible, perhaps, for Words to express the full Extent of his singular Merit. In every View of his Character, he appears excellent almost beyond Example. His ample Fortune, acquired in the Profecution of a Plan of his own Invention for the Improvement of the Revenue of the Post-Office, highly beneficial to his Country, was spent in a splendid, but decent, Hospitality, and in the Relief of a great Variety of Objects of Compassion. To his numerous Servants and Dependants he acted the Part of a tender Parent. His Benevolence was indeed unbounded; and so secretly was it generally exerted, that the Amount of it will probably never be discovered. His public Charities were also very extensive; and to the City of Bath in particular he was a most munificent Benefactor. His Loss indeed is, in every Sense, a public Calamity; for the King hath in him lost a most faithful Subject, and his Country in general one of its highest Ornaments.

Yesterday the Spanish Ambassador had the Honour of a long Conference with his Majesty at St. James's.

We are informed that Mr. Pitt had a long Conference, a few Days ago, with Lord Bute.

July 5. On Sunday last died Mrs. Harris, many Years Mistress of the Two Blue Posts, opposite St. Anne's Church, Soho. She weighed upwards of 40 Stone, Horseman's Weight, and was reckoned the largest Woman not only in England, but in all Europe; and equalled the late famous Mr. Bright, of Malden, in Essex.

Orders are given for three Companies of the Royal Regiment of Artillery, commanded by the Marquis of Granby, to be in Readiness to embark for America.

July 7. His Royal Highness the Duke of York is expected to arrive in England about Michaelmas; and his House in Pall Mall is ordered to be compleated by that Time.

July 10. Yesterday at Noon came on before Lord Mansfield, at the King's Bench Bar, Westminster, the Trial of M. D'Eon, for a Libel on his Excellency the Count de Guerchy, the French Ambassador; a special Jury was impannelled on the Occasion; but no Evidence appearing on M. D'Eon's Behalf, he was found guilty; and Sentence is to be pronounced To-morrow, the last Day of Term.

On Saturday Night, at Ten o'Clock, died, in the 82d Year of his Age, at his House in Piccadilly, the R^t Hon^ble William Pulteney, Earl of Bath, Viscount Pulteney, Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the County of Salop, F. R. S. and one of his Majesty's most Hon^ble Privy Council. He dying without Male Issue, the Title is extinct, and his paternal Estate devolves to his Brother, Lieutenant-General Harry Pulteney, who is also far advanced in Years.

July 12. We hear that on Saturday last an Appearance was entered for the Right Hon. the Earl of Halifax, in the Action brought by Mr. Beardmore's Clerk against his Lordship, and three of his Majesty's Messengers.

We are informed that a few Days since died at his Farm in Devonshire, Mr. Henry Watson, an eminent Farmer and Cyder-maker. Among the many Legacies which he bequeathed, leaving no Relations, is the following remarkable One: I give and bequeath unto John Wilkes, Esq; late Member for Aylesbury in Bucks, the Sum of Five Thousand Pounds, as an Acknowledgment to him, who bravely defended the constitutional Liberties of his Country, and checked the dangerous Progress of arbitrary Power.

Some Advices from Poland say, the last Check that the Castellan of Cracow received from the Troops of the Dyet, was much more considerable than was at first apprehended; for besides a great Number killed, wounded, and taken Prisoners, the Castellan had the Misfortune to lose 30 Waggons laden with Baggage. Many Ladies, and amongst the Rest his own Countess, Sister to Count Poniatowski, fell into the Hands of the Enemy, by whom she was immediately set at Liberty, and conducted, under a strong Escorte, to a Place of Safety. It was this heavy Blow that obliged him to retire with his Forces into Hungary.

When the Royal Academy of Sciences of Berlin met lately to celebrate the Anniversary of the King's Accession to the Throne, M. Formey, the Perpetual Secretary, opened the Assembly with the following Speech:

"Gentlemen, We are met to celebrate a Solemnity, the Return of which is a certain Proof of our Felicity. Whilst we can say Frederick reigns, we shall have a Right to add, We are happy. If it pleases Providence to preserve this august Monarch, which we shall ever pray for with the greatest Fervency, those who shall be assembled here this Day Twelvemonth, will see the first Jubilee of the glorious Reign, into the 25th Year of which we are just now entering.

"In an uninterrupted Prosperity may glide away the 25 following Years, which will lead to the second and grand Jubilee, at the End of which the Prussian Monarchy will have no less Foundation to extol the Age of Frederick, than all the other Monarchies, ancient and modern, have had to glorify the Ages of Cyrus, Alexander, Cæsar, Charlemagne, and Louis."

The Irish now manufacture broad and narrow Cloths in such great Perfection, that they will soon be able entirely to supply their home Consumption, and they are sold at reasonable Rates, the Wool blue, grey, pompadour, &c. Broad Cloths being 17*s.* Irish, per Yard; and the best superfine black, coffee, claret, and drab Colour, one Shilling cheaper.

By a Letter from Bengal, dated Dec. 24, 1763, we learn that Major Adams, who was then with his Army on the Banks of the River Carmanassaires, has wrote to Sujah Dowlah, the King of Delha's Vizier, into whose Country Coffim Ali Cawn retreated after his late Defeat by the English Forces, that if he does not surrender him up, he will cross the River, and destroy his Country with Fire and Sword; whereupon Sujah Dowlah wrote down for an Ambassador, and appointed one to treat with the Governor and Council. This Letter adds, that the newly-restored Nabob has given a very handsome Gratuity to the English Army for their late Services in his Behalf.

July 14. Wednesday the Rev^d Mr. Estick shewed Cause, in the Court of Common Pleas at Westminster, why the Action now at Issue between him and four of his Majesty's Messengers should not be consolidated with another Action commenced against a Right Hon. Earl jointly with the said Messengers; when the Court ordered the Rule to be discharged, with Costs; and the Cause now at Issue is to be tried the present Sittings after Term at Westminster-Hall, before the Right Hon. Lord Chief Justice Pratt.

NEW-YORK, September 24.

From private Letters by the Packet we are informed, that three Superior Courts of Admiralty are established in his Majesty's American Dominions, one of which to be at Quebec, of which one Mr. Gregory is said to be appointed Judge, another at Halifax, Mr. Durell Judge, the other not yet known.

Yesterday the Harriot Packet-Boat, Capt. Robinson, sailed with the Mail for Falmouth.

PHILADELPHIA, September 27.

Extract of a Letter from New-York, dated Sept. 15, containing a more particular Account of the late Treaty, than has yet been published.

"Sir William Johnson, at the late Treaty at Niagara, met with above 2000 Indians, the greatest Number ever assembled on such an Occasion. They consisted of Deputies from all the Western Indians, with the Six Nations, who accompanied him, in order to attend the Army. The greater Part of the Western Indians were well reconciled by Major Gladwin, for their Behaviour in endeavouring to bring about a Peace, as well as for Services done by many of them, in protecting the Garrisons of La Baye and Michillimakinak. The Chain of Friendship was renewed with them, on Condition of their engaging to deliver up all their Prisoners, and make Restitution for the Traders Loss.—The Hurons of Detroit made Excuses for their being concerned in the War, and said they were forced to it by those who were under Pondiac. They subscribed the Treaty in Form, ceding to his Majesty all the Land from Detroit to Lake St. Clair, along the Strait, and delivered up three Prisoners, which were all they had with them. The Senecas also subscribed the Treaty in due Form, ceding to his Majesty, for the Use of the several Posts in that Quarter, all the Land from the Lake Ontario to Lake Erie, four Miles in Breadth on each Side the Strait. They also gave up a Deserter, and fourteen Prisoners; and left two of their Chiefs as Hostages for the delivering up the two Headmen of those Delawares that are in their Hands, with all the Prisoners they took. The Day that Sir William left Niagara, Colonel Bradstreet set forward with the Forces under his Command, among which were above 500 Indians. It is, however, the Opinion of those here, who are best skilled in Indian Affairs, that this Peace can subsist no longer than we cultivate it by a prudential Management of Indian Affairs; and that if we relapse into our former Neglect of them, they will look upon their Agreement as void. Our Out-posts, Convoys, Traders, &c. are too much in their Power; from one of which they cannot fail of obtaining Supplies sufficient to give us much Trouble, and involve us in vast Expences."

Fort Bedford, Sept. 10, 1764.

"Yesterday Col. Bouquet marched from hence with a large Convoy of Provisions and Ammunition, on Pack-horses, for Fort Pitt, and lay last Night at the Shawanese Cabbins.—To-morrow a Convoy of 60 or 70 Waggons is to follow, under the Command of Capt. Hay, of the Royal Artillery.—And the next Day the last Convoy of Pack-horses, under the Command of Capt. Ourry, with the Rear of the Troops.

"It is hoped that these Convoys will all get up with very little Difficulty, as Captain Williams, Chief Engineer, precedes them with Workmen to repair the Roads. He has, with 200 Pennsylvanians, compleated, in four Days, a most excellent Waggon Road round the Sidling Hill.

"A Number of Volunteers from Virginia, are on their March to join the Army at Fort Pitt.

"Captain Macdonald is returned to Fort Cumberland from his Scout, without meeting any Enemy."

Captain Ourry, with the Rear of the Forces, was left, the 14th Instant, on the Top of the Alleghany Mountains, all well.

3

CLIFF, near ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA, September 22, 1764.

To be SOLD, purſuant to the Laſt Will and Teſtament of John Colvill, Gentleman, deceaſed, on the 24th Day of April, 1765, at the Houſe of Mr. Arthur Charlton, in Frederick-Town, in Frederick County, Maryland, for Sterling Money, Bills of Exchange, or Current Money of Pennſylvania, Maryland, or Virginia, as the current Rate of Exchange,

A VERY valuable Tract of LAND called Maryland, in the ſaid County, containing 6300 Acres, lying along the Foot of the lower Side of the Shenandoa Mountain, and along the Banks of Patowmack River, within 12 or 13 Miles of Frederick-Town, where great Trade and Buſineſs is carried on. It is very convenient for a Dutch Settlement, as many of thoſe People live near and about it. It is well Watered and Wooded, and in the Neighbourhood of two large Iron-Works. It will be Sold altogether, or in Lots or Parcels of 500 or 1000 Acres, as may be moſt convenient to the Purchaſers; for one Half of which, a Year's Credit will be given (if deſired) upon giving good Security, and allowing Intereſt. A Plat of the ſaid Tract may be ſeen in the Hands of Mr. Charlton aboveſaid.

A falſe and ſcandalous Advertiſement, publiſh'd in the Maryland Gazette, of the 6th of this Inſtant September, in the Name of John Patterſon, Agent for the Earl of Tankerville, to prejudice the Sale of the ſaid Tract, obliges me to obviate the ill Conſequences that may ariſe from it, by publiſhing ſuch Part of the Teſtator's Will as I judge may ſatisfy the Purchaſers of my Power to make them a good Title.

This Tract of Land called Maryland, is expreſſly deviſed to be Sold for the Payment of Debts and Legacies; and if the Money raiſed by it, ſhould fall ſhort to diſcharge them, I am expreſſly impowered by the Will to raiſe the Deficiency by a Sale of any of the Virginia Lands or Negroes, (deviſed to Lord Tankerville) as ſhall ſeem to me moſt expedient, except his Lordſhip chooſing rather to prevent the Sale of any Part of the ſaid Virginia Land and Negroes, will aſſume upon himſelf the Diſcharge of ſuch Deficiency, and wholly quit, exonerate, and indemnify me, as Executor, therefrom.

Lord Tankerville is appointed an Executor with me, and the only Debts of Conſequence are due to Perſons in Great-Britain: I have Prov'd the Will, and given Security in this Country; He has done neither; ſo that I am liable to the Payment of Debts, he cannot be compelled. I have wrote to him repeatedly to ſettle theſe Affairs in Britain, and ſave the Virginia Lands from Sale, or give me Bond and Security here, that I might be indemnified againſt the Creditors: But after waiting almoſt Nine Years for his Lordſhip's Determination, he ſtill declines giving me ſuch Indemnification; and the Creditors, now wearied with Delays and Diſappointments, have actually commenced Suits againſt me, even for the very Legacies which this Agent, Patterſon, ſo impudently aſſerts to be paid.

Out of Reſpect to his Lordſhip, I ſhall forbear, at this Time, mentioning his Payments of Debts and Legacies, or other Proceedings, except called upon by this ſagacious Agent to anſwer ſome other Eſſay of his Wit and Veracity.

I ſhould not have mentioned theſe Circumſtances, but to detect the Falſhoods in the ſaid Advertiſement to diſcourage the Sale of this Land, evidently not to my Diſadvantage, but his Lordſhip's, as it may force the Sale of ſome of the Virginia Lands or Negroes, which I have aim'd at preſerving to him entire.

It would afford very little Amuſement to the Public, and be very diſagreeable to me, to enter into an Altercation with ſuch a Perſon as Patterſon is well known to be: But this may be neceſſary for me to ſay, that I ſhall (God willing) attend the Sale, produce the original Papers, together with an authentick Copy of the Will, under which I derive my Power (which will ſhew the Falſity of his Lordſhip's being appointed Reſiduary Legatee, as alſo that his Concurrence in the Sale is not neceſſary) ſufficient to convince any Purchaſer, that his Title from me cannot be diſputed. When this is done, it may be a Queſtion, whether any Thing but invincible Ignorance, and ſtupid Effrontery, could influence Patterſon to appear to the Public with an Advertiſement, directly in the Face of the plain Intention of his Principal, and ſtrongly manifeſt Prejudice of his Principal, and ſtrong Stupidity and Falſhood.

THOMAS COLVILL.

N. B. The Plat, and an authentick Copy of the Will, will be lodged with Mr. Charlton in the Time.

WHEREAS there is a Diſpute between John Howard, Son of Benjamin, and the Subſcriber living in Baltimore County, in regard to the Title of Two Tracts of Land lying in Anne-Arundel County, on a Point of Patapſco River, and near the Elk-Ridge Landing. And as it hath been thought by many Perſons to be very convenient for Building a Town thereon, and as the Gentlemen of Elk-Ridge, and other Parts, have taken a great many Lots on the ſame, by Agreement with the ſaid Mr. John Howard, and as this Diſpute ſeems to put a Stop to the Building thereon, This is to inform the Purchaſers of the ſaid Lots, That if the Land ſhould belong to the Subſcriber, they ſhall have them as agreed for with ſaid Howard. And I further inform any Gentleman that inclines to purchaſe Lots, that it is a very fine Place for that Purpoſe, having ſeveral fine Cool Springs on it, and a large Old Field very level and dry, with the Conveniency of a Sea Trade, and a fine, rich, extenſive Country back of it, from whence is brought to the ſaid Landing. large Quantities of Tobacco, Wheat, Indian Corn, Hemp, Beef, Pork, and all other Articles for Merchandize.

Sept. 25, 1764. THOMAS JOHNSON.

To be SOLD to the higheſt Bidder, on the Premiſes, on Monday the 3d Day of December next, if fair, if not the next fair Day, for Caſh, or ready Crop Tobacco,

A TRACT of LAND called BARNHILL, containing about 300 Acres, more or leſs, on which is an exceeding good Dwelling-Houſe, 28 by 28 Feet, with 2 Brick Chimneys, 4 Rooms on the lower Floor, and good Porches both before and behind, all lately finiſhed, and 4 Rooms above, not quite finiſhed, but may be for a very ſmall Expence; a Kitchen, Corn-Houſe, Stable, an Out-Houſe for Negroes, and 2 exceeding good Tobacco Houſes, with a good Apple and Peach Orchard, 20 Acres of which might with very little Trouble be made into a very good Meadow: There is likewiſe two good Plantations on the ſaid Land, with convenient Houſes for a Planter, and Orchards, which Rent for 1000 ℔ Crop Tobacco yearly, each.

Likewiſe a Tract of Land called Court's Diſcovery, containing about 60 Acres, adjoining the ſaid Land.

The Titles of both Tracts are indiſputable, of which the Subſcriber will ſatisfy any Purchaſer, on the Day of Sale.

The above Three Plantations are all well Fenced in, and otherwiſe in very good Order.

WILLIAM KNAPP, WATCH-MAKER,

TAKES this Method to acquaint the Public, That he has provided an Assistant in the WATCH-MAKING BUSINESS, which will enable him the better to Dispatch the Work of those Gentlemen who have, and may employ him. He hopes his past Endeavours in that Way, may have answered the desired End. It is manifest from daily Experience, that Numbers of Watches (which have been originally well executed) have severely suffered thro' the unskilful and injudicious Practice of some Men, who assumed the Knowledge of a Business to which they were only Pretenders. Those Watches which have been many Years in Use, and consequently Wore, he will engage to Mend, as well as when New; and will at a very moderate Expence keep, those he Repairs, in Order, for Ten Years, all Damages excepted which may accrue to 'em from Accidents, such as a Fall, and the Breaking of a Main Spring, which the most discerning Workman cannot often Account for, nor the ablest prevent.

He Makes, and will Supply any Gentleman with HORIZONTAL, SECONDS, or PLAIN WATCHES, and will engage the Quality to be equal to any Imported from LONDON.

ANNAPOLIS: Printed by JONAS GREEN and WILLIAM REID, in Charles-Street. All Persons may be supplied with this GAZETTE at 12*s.* and 6*d. per* Year. ADVERTISEMENTS of a moderate Length are inserted for 5*s.* the First Week, and 1*s.* each Time after: And Long Ones in Proportion.
